Heavy rain may cause flooding and some disruption through Wednesday and into Thursday.

What to expect

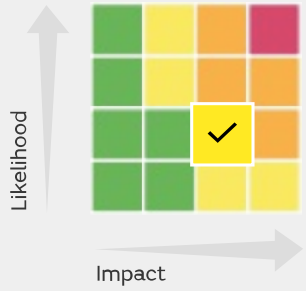
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Rain will affect northern and eastern parts of Northern Ireland at times through Wednesday and into Thursday, though some reduction in intensity is likely for a time during Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Widely 20-40 mm of rain is expected with some sites perhaps seeing 50 mm or more.

Higher ground, particularly the Antrim Plateau, is likely to see higher rainfall amounts with the chance of 80 mm or more in a few places, though snow is more likely above above 300 m.



✓ Low likelihood of medium impacts
